

WORD FOR THE KEY

I would have you to be in agreement and begin to prepare yourselves...for I'm going to send more people. I'm going to send those that are oppressed. I'm going to send those that need their prison door opened. I'm going to send those with broken hearts. I'm going to send those that need to find beauty for ashes and the oil of joy for their morning...for they will be mourning, and they will be hurting, and they will be crying out and they will be able to receive what you have for them.

I say to you, fear not. Be not concerned about who comes. Open your arms and receive what I send and seek not to judge and wonder about your agreement and about your privacy and about your comfort. For they will come, and some will cause discomfort, and some will cause problems. But I say to you I'm going to send more people to you. Open your heart. Open your arms. Begin to pray and be ready to receive for I'm going to begin to do a new thing here for those that I've chosen and so, understand that all of those that come will be sent BY ME through My Spirit. And so, fret not and some will leave, and some will stay. So, I say to you open your heart...open your arms and be not afraid.
